Kobe Nunobiki
Herb Gardens

神戸布引ハーブ園/ロープウェイ

Welcome to Kobe Nunobiki Herb Gardens

Spring, when the cherry blossoms and magnolias color the mountainsides.

Summer, when the night views astound.

Autumn, when the leaves turn the world crimson.

Winter, when the streetscape unfolds under perfectly clear skies.

Looking from the window of the ropeway, you feel like you've been transported into the eye of the four seasons. After taking in the beauty of the scenery below, you're greeted by the beautiful Herb Gardens.

With its colors, aromas and energy, this is truly a heavenly spot.

Must-sees from the ropeway

With its large windows, passengers on the ropeway get an incredible panoramic view of Kobe City as well as some well-known spots like the Nunobiki no Taki Falls and Gohonmatsu Entei (Nunobiki Gohonmatsu Dam), which has been designated as an Important Cultural Property.

Reminiscent of elegant midair stroll,
10 minutes and 1,460m to the top (400m)

Comfortable space and panoramic views

Enjoy the beautiful scenery and night view of Kobe with a leisurely ride from the base to the top of the mountain.

Barrier free for everyone

With no steps and easy boarding and exiting, the ropeway is barrier free.

Four Seasons Garden

12 spacious gardens for year-round beauty

This is one of Japan’s largest herb gardens, boasting around 75,000 herbs and flowers of 200 different species. The 12 gardens are arranged according to different themes so that visitors can enjoy the different herbs and flowers as they bloom in each season. The path, flowerbeds and hill give you a great sense of the seasons so you can truly appreciate the plethora of colors and aromas.

The old Wartburg Castle in Germany has been used as the image for the rest house while a dedicated spot for relaxing is surrounded by the castle gate, inviting you into a space inspired by Europe in the Middle Ages.

The rest house includes a restaurant where you can enjoy a pleasurable lunch using freshly picked herbs and a shop with original Herb Gardens goods.

The outdoor market is open in spring and summer for you to try the original herb cuisine.

Fragrance Museum

The Fragrance Museum displays a host of items associated with fragrance such as antique perfume bottles and devices that extract aroma.

Here you can get an insight into the historical aspects of fragrance by getting up close and personal with the beautifully adorned perfume bottles.

In the natural essential oils section, there are roughly 80 different types of oil so you can experience the real depth of aroma.

At the aroma studio, you can make your own aroma goods like soap using essential oil and room spray.

Find a fragrance you like and stay until your heart's content.

The “Statue of Love” was donated by Terni City in Italy, the birthplace of Saint Valentine. It shows the tender love of a mother holding her child. The spot is known for soothing the heart and expressing love.

Glasshouse

The beautiful glasshouse, which sits behind a gate that serves as homage to human encounters, displays art using herbs that can enhance your life with the themes of clothing, food and living.

Learn about the aroma and efficacy of herbs so you also can use herbs to help soothe your body and mind and live in a more peaceful state.

The glasshouse has a truly exotic feel with different vivid tropical flowers and plants in bloom all year round.
